Elfe Announces Safety Advisory Concerning Charlotte Crib

Elfe Juvenile Products is announcing an advisory concerning their Charlotte Crib model number 571515 (Wal-Mart Item # 2659145)

Elfe has determined that a small number of cribs may have a possible safety issue. To date, no injuries have been reported or linked to this issue.

Only models purchased at Wal-Mart with a date of manufacture of July 30, 2005 or September 1, 2005 are affected by this Advisory. The date of manufacture code can be found on the headboard of the crib. Please note, the date of manufacture is noted in the following format: YYYY/M/D

If you do not know where your unit was purchased and have a unit with one of the two affected dates, your unit is not affected if there is one of the following on your unit:

1. Line under the date
2. Black line on the last rail of the drop side at the bottom on the inside of the crib as illustrated
3. Black line over the lower right C guide on the inside of the drop side as illustrated.

1. Black Line / Ligne noire

2. Black Line / Ligne noire

3.

Consumers with affected Charlotte Cribs should call Elfe at 1-800-667-8184 or email service@elfe.ca
